

AGENDA

Assembly Human Services Committee Informational Hearing

The Sharing of Foster Care Information
Exploring the barriers, necessary privacy protections and recommendations on how to share educational and health information for the benefit of foster youth

Tuesday, August 27, 2013
1:30 pm, State Capitol – Room 437

Opening Remarks

- Assembly Member Mark Stone, Chair
- Assembly Member Brian Maienschein, Vice Chair

First panel – Education Information

- Holly Jacobson – WestEd’s Center for the Future of Teaching and Learning
- Michelle Lustig – San Diego County Office of Education Student Support Services
- Jesse Hahnel – National Center for Youth Law
- Daniel Senter – East Bay Children's Law Offices Education Advocacy Program
- Kyle Sporleder – Legislative Coordinator, California Youth Connection

Second panel – Health Information

- Rebecca Gudeman – National Center for Youth Law
- Jeff Rackmil – Alameda County Juvenile Justice Center Health Services Center Director
- Allison Briscoe-Smith – Director, Center for the Vulnerable Child, Children's Hospital and Research Center Oakland
- Maria Ramiu – Youth Law Center
- Kyle Sporleder – Legislative Coordinator, California Youth Connection

Third panel – What role should state and local agencies play?

- Will Lightbourne – Director, California Department of Social Services
- Keric Ashley – Director, Analysis, Measurement & Accountability Reporting Division, California Department of Education
- The Honorable Colleen Nichols – Presiding Juvenile Court Judge, Placer County
- Dave Gordon – Superintendent, Sacramento County Office of Education
- Phillip Kader – Contra Costa County Probation Officer
- Cynthia McCoy Miller – Senior Deputy Director, Los Angeles County Department of Child and Family Services

Public Comment