STOP THE HATE FUNDING
AMENDED AWARD
ANNOUNCEMENT
FISCAL YEAR 2021-2022

The California Department of Social Services (CDSS) Civil Rights, Accessibility and Racial Equity (CARE) Office is pleased to announce the recipients of the Stop the Hate Funding (STH) for Fiscal Years (FY) 2021-22. The CDSS allocated $14,269,246 in funding. A total of 80 organizations are awarded for the service period of April 15, 2022 through June 30, 2023. Awards are listed in Table 1.

Stop the Hate services include the following categories:

- Direct Services, including mental health and complementary health services; wellness and community healing; legal services; navigation, case management, and referral;
- Prevention Services, including arts-based and other cultural work that deepens understanding and empathy; youth development; senior safety and ambassador/escort programs; individual and community safety planning; training, including bystander training and other de-escalation techniques; working across racial groups and other impacted populations to strengthen alliances and promote understanding.
- Intervention Services, including outreach and training on the elements of hate incidents and hate crimes, services for survivors, and the rights of survivors; community-centered alternative approaches to repair harm from hate incidents and hate crimes; and coordination and liaising with local government and other institutional partners.

The STH program will be delivered through a cohort of Regional Leads, who will subgrant STH funds to Program Service Providers.
