SUBJECT: STOP THE HATE FUNDING (STH) AWARD ANNOUNCEMENT FISCAL YEARS 2022-2023 AND 2023-2024

The California Department of Social Services (CDSS) Civil Rights, Accessibility and Racial Equity (CARE) Office is pleased to announce the recipients of the Stop the Hate Funding (STH) for Fiscal Years (FY) 2022-23 and 2023-24. The CDSS allocated $91.4 million in funding. A total of 173 organizations are awarded for the service period of July 1, 2023, through June 30, 2026. Awards are listed in Table 1.

Stop the Hate services include the following categories:

- Direct Services, including mental health and complementary health services; wellness and community healing; legal services; navigation, case management, and referral.
- Prevention Services, including arts-based and other cultural work that deepens understanding and empathy; youth development; senior safety and ambassador/escort programs; individual and community safety planning; training, including bystander training and other de-escalation techniques; working across racial groups and other impacted populations to strengthen alliances and promote understanding.
- Intervention Services, including outreach and training on the elements of hate incidents and hate crimes, services for survivors, and the rights of survivors; community-centered alternative approaches to repair harm from hate incidents and hate crimes; coordination and liaising with local government and other institutional partners; and coordinated regional rapid response.

The STH program will be delivered through a cohort of Regional Leads, who will subgrant STH funds to Program Service Providers.
